The parties have set forth in Schedule "C" hereto the respective responsibilities of the Corporation and Claridge with respect to those items in the Corporation's budget relating to the cost of performing maintenance, repairs and replacements to the Shared Facilities and Required Easements. Each of Claridge and the Corporation shall promptly pay all of the costs and share of costs required to be paid by such party under Schedule "C". It is agreed that unless specifically otherwise expressed in this Agreement or in Schedule "C", nothing in this Section 7.3 shall require or obligate any party hereto to repair its Structure, it being the intention of this Section to specify only the cost sharing obligations of the parties. It is further agreed that if the Claridge Lands becomes severed into separate registered ownerships (including by way of a sale, transfer or creation of any legal entity, including a condominium corporation, with respect to said lands) then the owners of said lands without the consent or concurrence of the Corporation may reallocate and adjust amongst such owners the percentage of any cost to be paid by Claridge under Schedule "C" and the responsibility for repair of any item which Claridge has agreed to repair under this Agreement. Upon such re-allocation being made and written notice thereof being given to the Corporation, each of such owners' liability for payment or performance of any covenant under this Agreement shall be limited to the share or obligation specified in said written notice and thereafter Claridge shall be fully released from such obligations so assumed as aforesaid.

7.4 Performance of Work

To the extent that any party hereto is required to perform, repair or maintain either its Condominium or Claridge Lands, as the case may be, then all work to be performed shall be done, performed and effected in a good and workmanlike and in the same manner as would a prudent owner.

7.5 Default

If any party shall fail to commence and complete all reasonable steps to cure a default under this Agreement within thirty (30) days upon receipt of notice of such default by another party hereto, except in emergencies in which event such steps to cure any default shall commence forthwith upon notification, then the party giving the notice may take all reasonable steps to cure the default, including, without limitation, the performance or maintenance, repair or replacement work, the hiring of contractors, entry onto the Structure of the defaulting party, the exercise of any right of entry of such defaulting party, the payment of any sum secured by lien, and/or the filing of a bond to discharge a lien. The defaulting party shall, upon demand, reimburse the party taking such steps for all costs and expenses paid or incurred in the exercise of such rights.

ARTICLE 8 - FORCE MAJEURE

8.1 Force Majeure

Whenever and to the extent any party is prevented, hindered or delayed in the fulfilment of any obligation hereunder or the doing of any work or the making of any repairs or replacements by reason of force majeure, that party's obligation shall be postponed and such party shall be relieved from any liability in damages or otherwise for breach thereof, for so long as and to the extent such prevention, hindering or delay continues to exist. The term "force majeure" means any war or other catastrophe, act of the Queen's enemies, riot or insurrection, strike, lockout or labour disturbance, inability to obtain material, goods, equipment, services or utilities required, or any law, by-law, regulation or order of a public authority, or inability to obtain any permission or authority required thereby.

Such lien shall arise immediately upon the giving of written notice by the Creditor Party to the Defaulting Party demanding payment of said sum of money by the Defaulting Party and asserting the said lien against the Structure of the Defaulting Party. From and after the date upon which such lien arises, the Creditor Party shall be entitled to file a caution or such other notice of such lien as may be permitted by the provisions of the Land Titles Act and/or the Condominium Act, any amendments thereto, or by such other legislation that may be applicable to the title of the Parcel from time to time.

9.3 Liens Survive Termination

Notwithstanding any termination of this Agreement, the lien which shall have arisen prior to such termination pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof shall remain in full force and effect until the amount secured thereby shall be paid in full or satisfied, together with the costs and interest provided for in Section 9.5 hereof. For the purposes of Section 127 of the Act, a lien against the Condominium shall be deemed to be an encumbrance against each Unit and common interest therein and the common elements.

9.4 Liens Survive Conveyance

No conveyance or other divestiture of title shall in any way affect or diminish any lien arising pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof, and any lien which would have arisen against either the Corporation or Claridge pursuant to Section 9.1 had there been no conveyance or divestiture of title shall not be defeated, or otherwise diminished or affected, by reason of such conveyance or divestiture of title.

9.5 Interest and Costs

In each instance when a party shall be obligated to pay any sum of money to another party hereunder interest shall accrue thereon and be payable hereunder at fifteen percent (15%) per annum calculated daily and compounded monthly, in advance. If any legal action, demand or proceeding is brought, instituted or taken by a party, or if a party shall cure a default of another party the party in default shall pay to the other party all expenses incurred therefor, including a solicitor's fee (on a solicitor and his own client basis), unless a court shall otherwise award.

9.6 Mortgagee's Right to Assignment of Lien

Any party having a lien pursuant to Section 9.1 upon a Structure, or upon any Unit in a Structure shall have the right to assign such lien to a mortgagee of such Structure or Unit, upon payment by the mortgagee of the amount secured by such lien, or to give a discharge thereof for any Unit and appurtenant common interest upon receipt of the amount determined by applying to the lien amount the relevant proportion of common interest as specified in the Declaration.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

10.1 The validity, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario, and any dispute that may arise under or in relation to this Agreement, including its validity, construction or performance, shall be determined by arbitration upon application to a single judge of the Superior Court of Justice in accordance with, and pursuant to the provisions of The Arbitrations Act of Ontario, R.S.O., 1990, as amended, and the arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and upon their respective successors and assigns, and shall not be subject to appeal.

11.2 Debts and Liens Survive

Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement, if at the time of such termination, any party shall be obligated to pay any sum of money pursuant to the provisions hereof, such obligation shall not be extinguished until such sum of money, together with any interest accruing thereon together with costs, shall be paid, and any lien securing the payment of such sum of money shall, as provided in Section 9.3 hereof, remain in force and effect and continue to secure such payment and any interest which shall accrue thereon.

11.3 Termination of Condominium
